

PH Consulate in Sydney Promotes PH Oral Tradition to the young generation of Filipino Australians

Consul Melanie Diano and Consul Emmanuel Guzman with the Filipino-Australian children performers of the Philippine Oral Tradition held at the Bulwagang Rizal, Philippine Consulate General in Sydney.

Left photo: Ms. Jinky Marsh and Miranda Zafranco performing the Alamat ng Pinya. Right photo (L-R) Ms. Violi Calvert and Ms. Criz Guce with the Radio Tagumpay Junior contributors.

SYDNEY, 9 OCTOBER 2018 – The Philippine Consulate General in Sydney promotes PH cultural heritage and tradition to the young generation of Filipino-Australians. Consul Melanie Rita B. Diano with Consul Emmanuel Donato K. Guzman commended Ms. Jinky Marsh for bringing to the Philippine Consulate General in Sydney the presentation of Philippine Oral Tradition entitled “Inspiring the Filipino Child”. The performance covers folk songs, riddles(bugtungan), proverbs(salawikain) and alamat. The children performers delivered their rendition fluently in Filipino language. The project was supported by the Tripple H 100.1 FM Radio Tagumpay, Mr. Danilo Peralta of the Knights of Rizal, Mr. Miguel Castro, Mr. Rie Manalot, Ms. Criz Guce, Mr. Jerson Cruz, Ms. Violi Calvert and Mr. Bob Alipalo.

In her inspirational message, Consul Diano encouraged the Radio Tagumpay Team for a cultural performance of this kind to keep the Filipino children informed of their roots and heritage.